This matter having been opened to the Court on the application of Paul J. Fishman, United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey (Adam N. Subervi, Assistant U.S. Attorney, appearing), and counsel for defendant SALOMON CAMACHO MORA, a/k/a "El Viejo," a/k/a "Papa Grande," a/k/a "Hector" (William A. Clay, Esq., appearing) having consented to the instant order, and good cause having been shown, the Court makes the following findings:

1. This case is sufficiently complex, due to the nature of the prosecution, and it is unreasonable to expect adequate preparation for pretrial proceedings and trial within the time limits established by Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161. For example, the case involves numerous defendants, and numerous recorded calls that took place over the course of an extended period of time and involve the review, translation, transcription, and production of same.

2. The defendant is alleged to be a member of an international narcotics organization whose goal it was to smuggle cocaine from Colombia and elsewhere into the United States and to launder the proceeds of such activity. The allegations attendant with this case involve evidence from multiple countries.

3. Plea negotiations are currently in progress, and both the United States and the defendant desire additional time to negotiate a plea agreement, which would render a trial of this matter unnecessary. The plea negotiations are more complex than usual in that they also involve a separate indictment pending in the Southern District of Florida, which requires coordination and negotiation between not only the parties, but amongst multiple districts. Additionally, defense counsel suffered a debilitating illness in late 2013, which has prohibited him from finalizing plea negotiations in this matter. Accordingly, Defendant has requested the aforementioned continuance, and the United States has consented.

4. The ends of justice served by a continuance of the trial date in this matter until April 14, 2014 outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

IT IS, therefore, on this 9 day of January, 2014, ORDERED that the trial date in this matter is continued until April 14, 2014, and that the period of time from the date this Order is entered through April 14, 2014 shall be excluded for the purposes of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(7)(A), (h)(7)(B)(ii), (h)(7)(B)(iv); and it is further ORDERED that pre-trial motions shall be filed upon further order of the Court.
